

Now that Gen. Pershing is home with most of our boys the American Expeditionary Force in Europe has been reduced to a Brigadier-General's command. Seated is Brig.-Gen. W. D. Connor, the new commander; standing is Brig.-Gen. E. F. Booth, his chief of staff.

Copyright, International Film.

In oval—Home of Mrs. H. C. Corbin at Chevy Chase, near Washington, just leased by Gen. Pershing. Mrs. Corbin is the widow of Gen. Corbin, one time chief of staff.

Copyright, Harris & Ewing.

The fifth anniversary of the battle of the Marne recently was celebrated by mass in the cathedral at Meaux. The Archbishops of Rheims, Verdun and Meaux are shown blessing the crowd in front of the cathedral.

Photo, Press Illustrating.

Above—View of the lawn at Hartsdale, where the Westchester Floralia was held recently. Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, James Fraser and Frederick McMonnies had charge of the exhibition of sculpture, and Mrs. Charles Cary Rumsey was prominent among the patronesses.

At right—Emmy Destinn, famous opera star, who has just returned to America. She was interned for three years in her castle in Bohemia and vows she never will sing in German.

Copyright, International Film.

At left—Group of the younger members of prominent Westchester country families who acted as waitresses at the Floralia held at Hartsdale. The exhibition of fruits and flowers and works of art drew a throng that numbered thousands.

Copyright, M. E. Hewitt.